RUDOLF HAKEN CONCERTO FOR CLARINET, ORCHESTRA, AND STEEL PANS
dedicated to Bill King

For several years this work remained a "concerto in search of a solo instrument." It was first performed as a trumpet concerto in 1996 with Paul Merkelo, principal trumpet of the Montreal Symphony, then recast as a concerto for soprano saxophone. Clarinetist Bill King recorded the work in its present form for Centaur Records, conducted by Julien Benichou.

Interestingly, this is not the first concerto to be recast for different solo instruments: Bach rewrote violin concertos for the harpsichord, Mozart transcribed his oboe concerto for the flute, and Beethoven published a piano version of his violin concerto.

Another aspect of composition is finding the ideal location to compose. There are times when a noisy, disruptive environment is particularly inspiring. Mozart wrote his famous trio for clarinet, viola, and piano in a bowling alley. Similarly, I wrote much of this concerto during a lengthy Greyhound bus journey, actually choosing to travel slowly by bus in order to give me time and repose for writing.

I have had a long-standing interest in incorporating steel pans into orchestral music. This union of vastly different timbres and musical styles has provided wonderful compositional opportunities.

The first movement of this concerto is a tribute to Johann Sebastian Bach. Although the music sounds nothing like Bach, it is based on four notes that spell his name. (In German notation, B-A-C-H is equivalent to B flat-A-C-B). This motif is first stated by the clarinet alone, followed by the lead steel pan. The electric bass then creates a twelve-tone ostinato by presenting "BACH" in three different tonalities. This serves as the basis for a calypso rhapsody played by the steel band. The clarinet and orchestra join in numerous variations on "BACH," which take on the character of group jazz improvisation, replete with quotations from major works. After a clarinet cadenza, the opening calypso theme returns, played by the full orchestra. A solo tuba ritornello leads into the lyrical second movement.

The slow movement is based on an "ACH" motif, that is to say, "B-A-C-H" minus the first note. Vibraphone and marimba accompany the solo clarinet in an expressive, melancholy tune, which is answered in solos by several members of the orchestra.

The finale then opens with a "CH" motif, which is of course the second half of the "BACH" motif. From this develops a raucous tune in triple meter, which alternates throughout the movement with an expansive, lyrical melody. The concerto culminates in a bombastic climax, featuring an epic battle between these two themes.

The musical score for page 44 is arranged in a standard orchestral layout. The instruments are listed on the left side of the page, with their corresponding staves. The score is divided into four measures. The woodwind section (piccolo, oboe, clarinet Bb, bass clarinet Bb, soprano saxophone Bb, horn F, trumpet C, trombone, tuba) and the string section (violin 1, violin 2, viola, cello, electric bass) are mostly silent in this section. The percussion section is active, with the marimba playing a melodic line, the tom-toms, vibraphone, and suspended cymbal providing rhythmic accompaniment, and the steel pans (lead pan 1, lead pan 2 & snare, 2 double 2nd pans, cello pans & triangle, bass pans & tam-tam) playing a complex, syncopated rhythm. A solo clarinet Bb part is also present, though it is mostly silent in this section.
