Narration

measure 1: It was night time in the city.

measure 18: A monkey stole the key to help all the animals escape from the zoo.

measure 27: Soon it was morning and the rooster crowed.

measure 44: When the town awakened, the camel, who had a bad leg, was limping away as fast as he could.

measure 52: And the birds were singing as usual.

measure 67: The king and his band came out of the palace and were teased by the monkeys.

measure 80: Then the peacock started acting as if he were director of the band.

measure 94: Soon two lions got into a fight.

measure 102: The king got mad with all this commotion and ordered the animals to be caught immediately.

measure 119: The cars tried to honk the animals out of the streets.

measure 131: When the animals were caught and brought back to the zoo, the band played on.

measure 151: And afterwards, everyone had a nice party.
