Rudolf HakenFugue for Lucy

I composed this fugue in 1987 at age 21. The title came about when I was out with friends, one of whom asked each of us to name our “celebrity crush”. On a whim I announced that mine was Lucy, the 3.2-million-year-old hominid whose skeleton had been discovered in Ethiopia. My friend suggested I dedicate a love song to Lucy, so I wrote her this fugue.
